

Poetry Revisited

We Are

...a lively gathering of local poets and listeners who enjoy writing, reading, and listening to original poetry.

Our Meetings

We meet the second Sunday of each month at Arbor Landing, (second floor conference room) located on Rte 179 between Shallotte and Ocean Isle Beach.

Anyone is invited to come and read his or her individual poems, or to join us in simply listening to one another read. Everyone has an opportunity to read his or her own work. This is not a "class" in poetry.

There are no dues. No role-call. No commitments. No obligations. Folks simply come when they are inclined to do so! Won't you please join us at our next meeting? We look forward to seeing you.

(page 1)

Poetry Revisited

Our Purpose

We come for our own practice, encouragement, learning, and enjoyment. However, there are those in this group who have credible writing and/or teaching experience who are available to critique anyone's work, if requested.

In order to share our work with others in the community, we created a "Poetry Tree" display at the Southwest Brunswick Library (phone 910.575.0173) in Carolina Shores (Brunswick County) which includes Japanese Haiku as well as short poems by our members.

Contact Us

Email: poets@poetryrevisited.org

Web: www.poetryrevisited.org

* * *

Our meetings, special programs, or area readings (which are available by request) will also be listed in the BRUNSWICK BEACON.

(page 2)